

Consultancy policy:

- The College Management encourages the faculty and students to serve the society by sharing their expertise and experience with the needy.
- The money generated through consultancy is to be used for the welfare of the students.